Capcom to Open CAPCOMIX, a New Type of Attraction-Integrated Amusement Facility This Spring!

- Offering an extensive lineup of attractions themed around Capcom's popular characters -

Capcom Co., Ltd. today announced that it will open CAPCOMIX, an experience-based amusement facility, at the Hoop commercial complex in Osaka in the spring of 2026.

Capcom's Arcade Operations business currently operates a total of 59 locations*, including Plaza Capcom facilities, which primarily feature crane games and medal games, as well as Capcom Store, which is a line of specialty shops that offer a wide range of official merchandise.

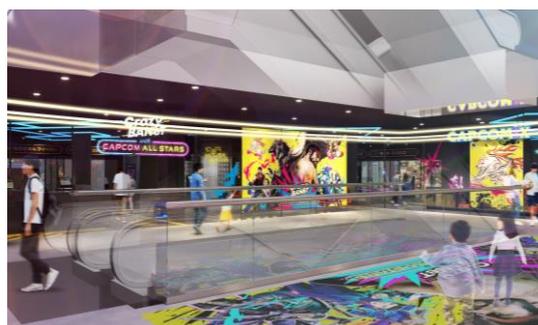

CAPCOMIX, the newly announced location, is an experience-based amusement facility designed around the concept of engaging visitors' minds and bodies in a fun and exciting mix of Capcom's characters and real-life activities. The facility will feature a variety of attractions based on Capcom's popular characters that appeal to visitors of all ages, including the Crazy BANeT with CAPCOM ALL STARS area, where guests can enjoy physical activities, and the VR-X area, which offers cutting-edge original VR experiences. Further details, including the opening date and facility details, will be announced on the official website.

Capcom aims to be a company that captivates people around the world with our best-in-class immersive content and will continue to maximize the value of its rich library of game content through multifaceted initiatives, thereby creating new earnings opportunities and enhancing corporate value.
